Thrombosis UK would like to thank long-serving Trustee, Paul Westerman, who is stepping down from his role with the charity after four years of support.

Paul, has represented the charity at numerous events and is the lead behind 'Charity Oars', a charity he established to help extend vital awareness of thrombosis to the general public.

Thrombosis UK is indebted to Paul for his support and will continue to enjoy his updates and photos on the very popular oars and the celebrities who have added their signatures to promote awareness of thrombosis.
